ADULT LEARNING PROGRAMS OF ALASKA (ALPA)

ALPA is an Alaskan non-profit founded here in Fairbanks in 1975. Our mission has always been to prepare the people that come to us with the skills needed to succeed in life.

As the needs of Alaska and our community have changed ALPA has kept pace and looks forward to using MUSHERS CAFÉ as a training site for a variety of populations seeking skills that can be used to get a job and allows them to contribute to their communities.

If you are interested in donating, partnering, or just learning more about ALPA...visit our website at:
